Proclamation

Arts Advocacy Week

Whereas, February 10-14, 2025, is South Carolina Arts Advocacy week;

Whereas, the arts are a vital component of quality of life in every community;

Whereas, local economies are strengthened by the production and presentation of arts experiences across all disciplines;

Whereas, students participating in the arts are shown to succeed in many measures during their educational journey;

Whereas, the business community places value on creativity to create innovative solutions to today's most challenging problems; and

Whereas, artists help all community members see the world through new perspectives and broaden our understanding of the world; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the City of Liberty;

1. Recognizes and appreciates the value that the arts have in our community, schools, and local economy;
2. Will continue to support the arts to best of its ability; and
3. Encourages all community members to patron, support, and participate in the arts.

Signed on this day, the 10th day of February 2025, I, Robbie Shoenleben on behalf of Mayor Erica Romo Woods, hereby claim February 10th-14th 2025 as Arts Advocacy Week.
